

SECTION 8 - JUDGES

Any National Association, Association, or Trainee Judge must be a current financial member of an Affiliated Club and must act in a professional manner and have a responsibility to the Association. Their conduct should always be beyond reproach when representing the Association.

- 8.1 Any National Association, Association, or Trainee Judge must maintain the judging standard required, such standards to be determined by the Executive Committee.
- 8.2 All National Association, Association or Trainee Judges must be supplied with the current New Zealand Amateur Rock'n'Roll Association Inc. Rule Book and must comply with the rules and any amendments relating to them.
- 8.3 Any Judge having accepted the invitation to judge at the forthcoming National Championships, must declare to the Association Head Judge any conflict of interest including coaching a couple in that National Championship. Where it is not possible for the Association Head Judge to use said Judge in an armchair capacity for that section, they must cease coaching immediately or withdraw from judging. Judges must also advise the Association Head Judge of any close personal or immediate family relations that may be competing in that Championship.
- 8.3 (a) The Association Head Judge will provide a copy of the scrutineers' sheets to all officiating judges within two weeks of the competition concluding.
- 8.4 A Judge, having accepted an invitation to judge at a forthcoming National Competition, must then attend a workshop before that National Competition with the exception of special circumstances agreed to by the Association Head Judge.
- 8.5 Any written complaints or non-compliance of the rules defined in Section 8 will be investigated by the Executive Committee. If the nature of the complaints is likely to lead to the dismissal of a Judge, a panel will be convened as soon as practicable to consider such allegations. The panel will consist of five National Association Judges pre-selected by their peers ie. fellow National Association Judges. If the panel is convened in regard to a matter concerning one of the pre-selected judges, that judge plus one other (randomly selected by the Executive Committee) will not take part in the panel's deliberations.
- 8.6 Following an investigation with the person or persons concerned the panel will make their recommendations to the Executive Committee within seven days. The Executive Committee will notify those concerned, in writing, of the outcome within a further seven days.
