5. REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office of the Association shall be at the current Secretary's address.

6. MEMBERSHIP

Any club is eligible for membership if it undertakes to conform to the rules and bylaws of the Association and otherwise comply with its requirements and shall, upon making written application to the Secretary of the Association and with the approval of the Executive Committee, be enrolled as a member.

7. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

The Secretary shall keep a register of Member Clubs with the date on which they become a Member.

8. CESSATION OF MEMBERS

- a. By written resignation to the Secretary. Such resignation will take effect from the Executive meeting immediately after the resignation is received. The member club resigning shall be liable for such fees and levies as are payable to the end of the financial year in which they have resigned.
- b. The Secretary shall purge the roll of any member club who may be in arrears of subscription payments for three (3) months or more. Such purging shall not free a member from arrears from subscriptions and levies or from the liability to pay the dues for the financial year, or any antecedent liability.
- c. When any club, in the opinion of the Association has been guilty of conduct which makes it undesirable that they should continue to be a member the Association, by the two thirds majority vote of the members present and entitled to vote, may resolve to cancel their membership provided that at least two (2) months notice of the proposed expulsion shall be given to the club concerned.

9. MEETINGS

- a. The Association shall hold an Annual General Meeting once a year not later than five (5) months after the end of the financial year and notice of such annual general meeting shall be given in writing to all members at least two (2) months prior to the meeting.
- b. A special general meeting may be called at any time on the decision of the majority of the Executive Committee or at the request of three member clubs of the Association (in writing stating the purpose for which such a special general meeting is required), to the Secretary. Upon receipt of the request the Secretary shall convene such a special general meeting giving 60 days notice to all members and specifying the intended areas of discussion.
- c. At all General Meetings or meeting of the Executive Committee the President shall preside but in the event of the President being unable to attend, or unwilling to preside, such other person as the clubs or persons present shall elect from their number as chairman whom whilst so acting shall have all the powers of the President.

- d. That the NZARnRA Inc. meet expenses of National AGM Venue and associated costs out of Association Funds. Such costs being the venue, secretarial services, if required, and expenses of the Executive Committee.

10 NOMINATIONS

Nominations for Executive Positions excluding the Head Judge must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Association no later than 30 days prior to the date of the AGM. In the event of no nominations being received for a position, or the position remaining vacant after voting, nominations may be taken from the floor at the AGM

Nominations for Head Judge are submitted by Association and National Association Judges and National Association Executive Committee members and must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Association no later than 60 days prior to the date of the AGM.

60 days prior to the date of the AGM, the Secretary of the Association will conduct a postal vote for the position of Head Judge.
(See 13. Officers and Executive)

11. VOTING

- a. Each affiliate Club and member of the Executive Committee (excluding the Immediate Past President) shall be entitled to one vote each.
- b. At any general meeting or Executive Committee meeting a motion put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless a poll is requested. At an Annual General Meeting the voting split for notices of motion and remits will be recorded in the AGM minutes except for the election of officers.
- c. If a poll is requested, it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the result of the meeting at which the poll was requested.
- d. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman at the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is taken, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- e. If a member of the Executive Committee other than the Head Judge resigns following the AGM, the remaining Executive Committee shall in the first instance approach the delegates and observers of that AGM to identify and appoint a replacement. If they are unable to, the remaining Executive Committee may approach other suitable candidates who must each belong to at least one affiliated club.

If more than one Executive Committee member other than the Head Judge resigns within their 12 month term, then a postal vote shall be held to elect replacement committee members.

If the Head Judge resigns, the remaining Executive Committee shall appoint a replacement from the National Association Judges current at the time of resignation.

- f. The current National Executive (excluding the Immediate Past President) retains their individual vote on all matters at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting until the meeting has finished.

12. QUORUM

The quorum of Executive Meetings shall be a majority of officers of the Executive and the quorum of Special & General Meetings of the Association shall be one third (33%) of the member clubs of the Association.

13. OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE

The officers of the Association shall comprise the Executive Committee being, President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, to be elected at the Annual General Meeting by the members, and the Immediate Past President (if applicable).

The Head Judge is to be elected by a postal vote carried out 60 days prior to the date of the AGM and running for 30 days, such postal vote to be conducted with each Association Judge and National Association Judge and National Association Executive Committee member having one vote. The outcome of the postal vote will be announced at the AGM.

The Executive Committee shall meet at such times and places as it considers expedient and shall have a quorum of officers. The President or such other person as hereinbefore provided shall act as Chairman of the Executive Committee. Such members as mentioned above shall not consist of a married or co-habiting couple or immediate family members.

14. POWERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- a. With the exceptions of specific resolutions passed at Annual or general meetings of the Association the management of the property and the investments of the funds shall be conducted by the Executive Committee.
- b. The Executive Committee may exercise any power vested in the Association and not required by these rules to be exercised by the Association in a general or Annual General Meeting and may delegate any of its powers to sub-committees.
- c. The Executive Committee shall present to the Annual General Meeting a full report of its activities during its year of office and of any matters of interest or importance to the Association which transpired during the period of said report. The Treasurer shall present to the Annual General Meeting financial statements and a balance sheet prepared in accordance with good accounting practice of the previous financial year of the Association.

- d. The Executive Committee shall have power to appoint and instruct delegates or representatives to bodies with which the Association is affiliated or which have provisions for representation of the Association at their meetings.

15. AUDITOR

The Accounts of the Association will be prepared annually, and separately reviewed by an independent and suitably qualified person/s as determined by the Executive, prior to the AGM.

16. PECUNIARY GAIN

No member of the organisation or any person associated with a member shall receive, participate in, obtain or materially influence any decision made by the organisation in respect of payments made to or on behalf of that member or associated person of any income, benefit or advantage whatsoever. Any such income paid shall be reasonable and relative, i.e. payment of expenses incurred by the Executive Committee or remuneration to members as decided by the Executive Committee, to that which would be paid in an arms length transaction.

The provision and effect of this clause shall not be removed from this document and shall be included and implied in any document replacing this document.

17. COMMON SEAL

- a. The Common Seal shall be kept by the Secretary at the registered office of the Association.
- b. The Common Seal shall not be fixed to a document, instrument, deed, writing, paper or other things unless pursuant to a resolution of the Executive Committee and in the presence of two members of the Executive Committee who shall sign the said document, instrument, deed, writing, paper or other thing as witnesses. Each fixture of the Common Seal shall require a separate motion of the Executive Committee.

18. ALTERATION OF RULES

- a. The Constitution may be altered only if a motion of the proposed alteration is sent in writing to the Secretary at the registered office of the Association at least 90 days prior to the Annual General Meeting of the Association, and has been put at that meeting and carried by two thirds majority of the total of Member Clubs and Executive Committee present and entitled to vote.

- b. Alteration of Rule Book A must be implemented by remit at an Annual General Meeting and be carried by a majority of the total of member Clubs and Executive Committee present and entitled to vote.
- c. No addition to or recession of the rules shall be approved if it affects the non-profit aims, personal benefit clause or the winding up clause. The provisions and effect of this clause shall not be removed from this document and shall be included and implied into any document replacing this document.

19. SUBSCRIPTIONS AND LEVIES

The annual fees and levies payable by member clubs shall be set at each Annual General Meeting of the Association.

20. WINDING UP

If at a meeting a majority of member clubs present resolve that the Association shall be wound up, a further special general meeting shall be held within three (3) months but not earlier than 30 days after the day of the meeting at which such was resolved, to confirm or reject such resolution.

If such a resolution is passed a second general meeting must be called not earlier than thirty days from the first meeting to pass a resolution confirming the earlier decision to wind up the society. Once again a simple majority is required to pass the resolution. If the resolution is lost then the earlier resolution lapses. If the confirming resolution is passed the members must appoint one or more liquidators to wind up the affairs of the society. The Association shall be wound up and all surplus assets after payment of all costs, debts and liabilities of the Association shall be distributed equally amongst all member clubs.

21. INDEMNITY

Every Officer of the Association or servant of the Association shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Association to pay all costs, losses and expenses which any such officer or servant may incur or become liable for by reason of any contract entered into or act or thing done by them as an officer or servant of the Association or in any way discharging his or her duty, including travelling expenses and reasonable out of pocket expenses.

22. INTERPRETATION OF THE CONSTITUTION

A substantial compliance with this constitution whether as to form, time, number of any other matter in all cases be good and sufficient and no regulation, resolution, decision, election, appointment, notice or other matter or thing shall be invalidated by reason only of a failure to comply exactly within these rules.
